| | Cllr. Keeling reported various items including: | |
| | 'Cornwall Council met on the 25 th February to set a balanced budget for 2025/2026. For this period Cornwall Council requires an operational budget of £840m and a capital programme of £1.9Bn. For the Council's own requirement, a Council Tax of £441.379m is required, predicated on a Council Tax increase of 2.99% plus a further 2% Adult Social Care precept. The overall increase of 4.99% results in a band D property charge of £1,987.20, an increase of £1.82 per week on the level set on the 2024/2025 level. Taking into consideration the Police and Town/Parish Councils the Band D tax figure is £2,459.92.' | |

| | Proposed from the Chair and AGREED | |
| 153/2425 | Redruth Town Council Letter re Allocation of Second Home Funding | |
| | The Mayor presented a letter from Redruth Town Council regarding the allocation of second home funding, which Redruth Town Council would like to see allocated differently rather than going to the Town or Parish which the property is located within. | |
| | Discussed at length. Noted the number holiday lets in Porthleven did have a knock-on effect to local residents as these properties did not contribute to the precept as they are subject to Business Rates rather than Council Tax. The new system of double Council Tax rates on second homes goes some way to rectify the loss of contribution from holiday lets. | |
| | Proposed from the Chair and AGREED to take no action | Clerk |

There being no further business, the meeting closed at $7.55 \mathrm{pm}$
